FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sheila Caldwell announced as
*Beyond the Call of Glen Award Recipient for 2009

At a Past Festival Chairs and Announcement of 2010 Festival Chair Breakfast, Past Festival Chair, Margaret Wallace, introduced Sheila Caldwell as the 2009 Beyond The Call of Glen Award recipient.

Margaret Wallace commented:

“This award is Come-See-Me’s highest selected award...it’s our lifetime achievement award. The Beyond The Call Of Glen Award recognizes long-term commitment to, and support of the Come-See-Me Festival. It recognizes a “love” and attachment for the festival that is volunteer in nature, and not necessarily commercial support. The award recognizes an effort that goes above and beyond the expected.

As this year’s winner, Sheila Caldwell, exemplifies what The Beyond The Call of Glen Award is all about. Our recipient has been involved with the festival since 2003. She began her “Come-See-Me” career as publicity chair, handling all of the festival’s public relations and website. In 2005, she moved to the position of webmistress and has held that position ever since.

As the 2005 publicity chair, the festival won the 2005 Festival & Events Best Website for Festivals with a budget over $50,000.

Not only is our award winner a dedicated Come-See-Me volunteer, she is also a very talented singer. She will be performing again during Glencairn Garden entertainment on Tuesday, April 21 at 6:00pm. Her show is called Divas Through the Decades Country Music Revue, and you will not want to miss this performance.”
