Come-See-Me Festival BBQ Cook-Off Friday, April 24 & Saturday, April 25 2009

ROCK HILL, SC - Think you have the best barbeque recipe? The Come-See-Me Festival will give you a chance to find out this April during its second BBQ Cook-Off scheduled as part of the annual Tailgate Party on Saturday, April 25, 2009. Proceeds from sale of BBQ to benefit the Worthy Boys and Girls Camp as a service project by the York County Law Enforcement volunteers.

This sanctioned competition will be judged and governed by the South Carolina BBQ Association. Active SCBA members can accrue points through participation. Only 30 teams will be allowed at this annual event, which takes the place of the Great Grill-off previously held at Winthrop Lake during the festival. Cook-off teams will be competing for prizes of up to $1,000.00 and will be cooking pork butts; barbeque by the pound will be available for sale to the general public after the Tailgate Party starts at 3:00pm on Saturday, April 25. Come-See-Me Tailgate partygoers will only need to bring their side items to compliment the barbeque pork.

A “No Pork” barbeque competition will be held on Friday, April 24, during Come-See-Me’s Moonlight Jazz & Blues event at Winthrop Lake. Teams will be cooking items of their choice and sample sizes will be available for purchase. Prizes of up to $300.00 will be awarded to winning teams for this event.

Both the “No Pork” barbeque and Come-See-Me BBQ Cook-off competitions will be held rain or shine. Only approved competitors for these events will be permitted early access to the Winthrop Lake venue or be allowed to bring in tow-behind grills.

Complete competition information rules and application is available for download on the Come-See-Me website: <http://comeseeme.rockhill.net>. A completed application with an entry fee of $250.00 and a clean up fee of $25.00 is required per team and will be accepted on a first come-first serve basis through Friday, April 3, 2009.
